NOTICE.

BACTERIAL RING-ROT REGULATIONS.

NOTICE is hereby given that, under the provisions of section 3 of the “Plant Protection Act,” chapter 217 of the “Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1936,” the following regulations have been approved by Order in Council No. 1633, dated November 28th, 1942.

1. These regulations may be cited as the “Bacterial Ring-rot Regulations.”

2. In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires:—

“Act” shall mean the “Plant Protection Act,” being chapter 217 of the “Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1936”:

“Government official” shall mean an official of any Government outside of the Province authorized to sign certificates suitable for these regulations:

“Imported potatoes” shall mean all potatoes, grown outside the Province:

“Importer” includes the person to whom potatoes grown outside the Province are consigned and any person who exercises acts of ownership over potatoes imported into the Province:

“Inspector” means an Inspector appointed under the Act:

“Minister” means Minister of Agriculture of the Province.

3. No person shall move or transport imported potatoes within the Province unless such potatoes have been inspected and certified to be apparently free from bacterial ring-rot by an Inspector or an authorized Government official. Proof of such inspection shall accompany shipment.

4. Any Inspector may inspect any imported potatoes in transit or at point of destination.

5. Where potatoes are found which, in the opinion of the Inspector, are infected with bacterial ring-rot, the Inspector shall place such potatoes under detention.

6. An Inspector detaining under Regulation No. 5 any lot of potatoes may at any time and at any place attach thereto a number detention-tag bearing the legend "'Bacterial Ring-rot Regulations,' under detention," and signed with the Inspector's name. Thenceforth no person shall sell or offer for sale, move, allow or cause to be moved any such potatoes, or remove such detention-tag without the written authority of an Inspector.

7. The Inspector shall, as soon as possible after placing such detention-tag on the potatoes, notify the importer and shall cause the said potatoes to be examined by a Plant Pathologist selected by the Minister.

8. When the findings of the Plant Pathologist indicate that potatoes are infected with bacterial ring-rot the Inspector shall so advise the importer, and thereupon the importer shall cause such potatoes to be moved to a manufacturing plant or otherwise disposed of as the Inspector may direct, and the Inspector may give directions to the importer, dealer, or ultimate consignee as to the treatment of the containers and equipment used in the handling and transporting of the potatoes.

9. Any person who fails to comply with any of the provisions of these regulations or who fails to comply with any direction of the Inspector made pursuant to Regulation No. 8 shall be guilty of an offence and liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars ($250).

(d.) To seek for and secure openings for the employment of capital in British Columbia and elsewhere, and with a view thereto to prospect, inquire, examine, explore, and test, and to dispatch, employ, and finance expeditions, commissioners, cruisers, experts, and other agents, and to report on all classes of property and enterprise for local or foreign corporations or private persons or firms:

(e.) To construct, acquire, or establish docks, slips, wharves, jetties, piers, workshops, buildings, machinery, warehouses, and other conveniences, and to carry on the business of proprietors of docks, wharves, jetties, piers, booming-grounds, and any other business which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same:

(f.) To acquire, construct, develop, maintain, and operate roads, tramways on lands owned, leased, held, occupied, or controlled by the Company, water-powers, reservoirs, water-courses, dams, flumes, conduits, aqueducts, and other works and conveniences which may to the directors seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the Company's interests, and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise assist any such works undertaken by others:

(g.) To develop, accumulate, and utilize water-powers for the purpose of generating electricity or other motive force, similar or otherwise, and to supply the same for the production, transmission, or use of power for lighting, heating, or motive purposes in connection with the buildings and other works of the Company, with authority to sell or otherwise dispose of any surplus electricity or power generated by the Company's works, and to construct and operate lines for such purpose, subject to all local and municipal and Provincial laws and regulations in that behalf:

(h.) To construct, maintain, and operate single- or double-track or aerial or other tramway with all necessary side-tracks and turn-outs thereon for the passage of cars, carriages, and all kinds of vehicles capable of being used upon or in connection with a tramway upon, along, across, under, or above any lands, highway, roads, streets, or bridges which are in the line of any tramway built or intended to be built by the Company, and to erect, maintain, and repair poles and wires in the line of the tramway:

(i.) To acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise in British Columbia or elsewhere any land, with or without buildings or erections thereon, which may seem suitable for the business of the Company:

(j.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, and to have, maintain, and operate, supply stores, and sell and deal in general provisions, supplies, and merchandise:

(k.) To farm any land held by the Company, and for that purpose to buy and sell and deal in any farm stock or produce:

(l.) To carry on business as contractors and builders, and manufacturers of and dealers in all kinds of builders' supplies, including stone, cement, lime, brick, terra-cotta, and all building materials:

(m.) To manufacture, buy, sell, and generally deal in any plant, machinery, tools, goods, or things of any description which in the opinion of the Company may be conveniently dealt in by the Company in connection with any of its objects:

(n.) To carry on all or any of the businesses of general commission merchants, shipping agents, brokers, factors, importers and exporters of, and dealers, wholesale and retail, in sawlogs, timber, lumber, wood, wood-pulp, and all articles of which wood forms a component part, and generally in all kinds of wares and merchandise and products of every nature whatsoever:

(o.) To promote, form, organize, and register, and to aid and assist in the promotion, formation, organization, and registration of, any other company or companies, whether for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the assets of this Company or for any other purpose, with power to assist such company or companies by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses or providing the whole or part of the capital thereof, or by taking or subscribing for shares, preferred, ordinary, or deferred, therein, or by lending money thereto upon debentures or otherwise; to remunerate, either in cash or fully paid shares or otherwise, the promoters or any persons assisting in the promotion of this Company or any company promoted by this Company; to pay out of the funds of the Company all or any of the expenses of and incident to the promotion, organization, registration, advertising, and establishment of this or any other company, and to the issue and subscription of the share or loan capital, including brokerage and commission for obtaining applications for, or placing or guaranteeing the placing of, the shares or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of this or any other Company, and also all expenses attending the issue of any circulars, maps, plans, or notices, or the printing or circulating of proxies or forms to be filled up by the members of this or connected with this or any other Company:

(p.) To enter into and carry into effect any arrangement for joint working in business or for sharing of profits or for amalgamation with any other company or any partnership or person carrying on business within the objects of this Company:

(q.) To apply from time to time for such legislative powers in the said Province of British Columbia or elsewhere as will facilitate the carrying into effect of the objects of the Company or any of them:

(r.) To purchase, take, or acquire by original subscription or in exchange for the shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities of this Company or otherwise, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of shares, stock, whether common or preferred, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, and other obligations in any other company having objects similar in whole or in part to the objects of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(s.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, or concessions:

(t.) To do all or any of the matters hereby authorized, either alone or in conjunction with or as factors or agents of or for any other companies or persons, or by or through any factors, trustees, or agents:

(u.) To carry on any business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above or any portion thereof, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights.

The word "company" in this memorandum, when applied otherwise than to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere, and the objects specified in each of the paragraphs hereto shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph or the name of the Company), but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill:
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.
